W. J. Bryan May Build in Venice

Coming on top of a rumor that a summer mansion is contemplated for President Warren G. Harding in Santa Monica, Venice, not to be outdone, is now seeking to confirm a report that William Jennings Bryan has purchased a large lot in Venice and will shortly build a home in the beach city.

One of the most successful dances, both socially and financially, ever held in Catholle Hall, was the hard time dance, given there Friday evening, April 20. The attendance of Torrance, Lomita and Gardena young people was the largest ever seen in the hall. No girl was deprived of an evening's pleasure on account of not having a new dress. The girls were there in simple houses dresses and neat school dresses, and the young men were dressed accordingly. The Redondo Melody Four furnished the music. The Catholic ladies know how to make these social dances a success and dance lovers who were unable to attend missed a grand time.
